Happy New Year, Pursuit alum!

Check out our first update of 2019 below. Please note that we are resuming mock interviews and DSA workshops during the week of January 14, so there will be no programming next week. Feel free to come in and work on your projects or help us out with Alumni Alley in the meantime.

Quick Updates:

- Alumni Alley: Please drop in next week to help us set up the new, dedicated space for alumni ONLY. If you're willing and able to help out, RSVP to the calendar appointment so we know to expect you. Thanks in advance!
- Resume book: If you'd like to give us permission to send your resume out for roles we think you'd be a good fit for, upload it here.

Job Opportunities

- Capital One is looking for a Senior Software Engineer. This position was shared through a Pursuit alum who will be reviewing applications for this role - please send me your resume by EOD Monday if you are interested in applying.
- The Mayor's Office is hiring for a number of positions and fellowships. "An apprenticeship (3 month commitment) or fellowship (6 month commitment) with our team is an opportunity to grow your expertise in product management, design, development, and public policy to help improve the lives of millions of New Yorkers. Open roles include Product Management, Graphic Design Apprentice and Engineering. Applications are due on February 1, 2019." Please let me know if you apply so I can flag your application with their office.
- TEKSystems reached out about an upcoming opportunity: they are the exclusive recruiter for 20+ junior developers at JPMorgan Chase in Delaware. Interview process to start in early 2019 - stay tuned for details!
- Please continue to check the alumni Slack channel for daily job postings across all stacks.

Resources

- Did you know that mid-January is your best bet for applying to jobs? Learn more here.
- Check out this list of 31 companies that are hiring like crazy in January.

Announcements

- Applications for 6.0 launch on Monday! Please refer friends and family here: <https://goo.gl/forms/vZRRITTYHFZpqVG3> Alum with the most referrals will win tickets to 2019 Bash!

Have a great weekend, everyone! Hope to see many of you in 2019.

Warmly,
Victoria
